

Declaration on Carbon Neutrality

As a member of National Central University, I have learned carbon reduction knowledge and skills through courses and activities, understanding the importance of achieving carbon neutrality. I pledge to actively take action and inspire those around me to do the same.

After graduation, I promise to keep the experiences and knowledge gained during my studies in mind, continuously integrating carbon reduction practices into my life. As a global citizen, I will contribute to protecting the Earth and our future.

